

Tea Leaf READING

The photo Lee mentioned in his reading of Nasim's mum nearly touching the mirror in her bedroom.

Lee Sweeney started reading the tea leaves at the age of 12 and believes that we can learn the secrets of our destiny in the turn of a teacup.

Lee is a clairvoyant, psychic and clairsentient and interprets signs and symbols in the tea and is able to use the tea as a direct clairvoyant link and doorway. In this issue, Lee gives a reading for High Spirit reader, Nasim Humayun

I used the tea leaves and tarot cards for this telephone reading. The first thing I see in your tea is a heart, this symbolises an unbroken love link, between you and your mum. I see a photo connected to your mum nearly touching a mirror in your bedroom. A wave of emotion now washes over me.

I see your hair annoying you at the moment, it looks more grey one side than the other? Your change of hair colour comes from the inside of yourself, an inner need to change and evolve.

In your tea I see a house move, and a new chapter in your life. In a flash I can see cracks in the wall where you live at the moment.

A business idea in your mind is mirrored in your tea, as it has formed as a baby your idea can grow.

One of your children is returning into education, I also sense a link overseas.

The tea holds money for you, with legal symbols around it.

A seahorse is formed at the bottom of the tea cup, meaning magic and intrigue. I feel this symbol will be connected to a new partner, I see him with grey hair. This feels like a healing relationship with you being intrigued by his mind.

A sister has caused conflict and tension and was very jealous of you. An ex partner is having regrets about your split.

There is a strong link between your daughters and yourself, like three circles of a flower unfolding.

You have asked Archangel Michael for protection and your soul partner, he will keep his promise.

What an exciting reading, New home, fresh chapter and a stranger. Wishing you magic... Lee

Nasim reply

Thank you for this reading. It was excellent. Lee touched on the link with my mother which is very true. She passed away on 5th July 2008 and it was nice to hear that the link was still there. My mother has left such a big void and I find it hard each day to move on. There is a picture of her in my bedroom which is under a free standing miniature mirror on my dresser which was spot on! I also have a big crack in my bedroom which appeared two days before the reading. This was so spooky.

I am also very shocked that he knew I had put in a request to Arch Angel Michael. This was set off by watching the recent TV programme Aspirations on BBC1 which I enjoyed. I found the prayer on line.

I can't wait to meet the new stranger and look forward to moving home. I am happy to hear that my daughter will return to her studies and it is in fact in Los Angeles.

I have thought about going into business for myself, but have not had the confidence just yet, but this is now more on my mind and I give it more consideration.

My hair has been bugging me for the last few months and yes it is greyer on one side. It really annoys me as any hair colour I use doesn't stay. A complete change of hair and look was on my mind the whole week! It made me laugh when Lee said it. I really wish I could just magically change my look.

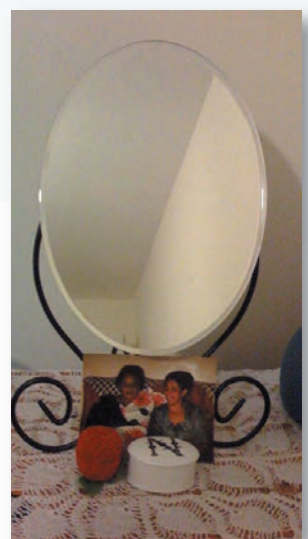

I do love magic and have been using The Secret for over a year since finding it in LA. I am truly blessed and thankful for life.

He mentioned that one sister had caused conflict and tension plus was very jealous of me. All very true.

He said my ex partner was having regrets about our split which was also true – he did get in touch with me and said this.

The other thing Lee picked up is the strong link between me and my two daughters and we always say we are the power of 3.

He also said there was money coming in from legal connection – true – just waiting for final outcome which Lee said would be good. I was very pleased to have spoken with Lee and this reading was very helpful. Thank you, give Lee my best wishes and thank him very much.

If you would like a reading with Lee to appear in a future issue of High Spirit, please send in your name, address, and contact telephone number to: Tea Leaf Readings, High Spirit Magazine, First Floor, 105 High Street, Brentwood, Essex, CM14 4RR. For telephone readings Lee can be contacted on freephone: 0800 121 6820.